

CONFEREES ENDORSE THE TARIFF BILL

Measure Receives Unanimous Endorsement of the Democratic Conferees

MAY BE SIGNED THIS WEEK

Democratic Leaders Are Confident That President Wilson Will Sign the Bill
Before the End of the Week

HOUSE WILL TAKE UP THE BILL TODAY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The Democratic tariff revision bill, first on the program of reforms mapped out when President Wilson came into office, advanced to its last congressional stage today, when it was brought back to the house from the joint conference commission with the unanimous endorsement of the Democratic conferees. Leaders in both houses of congress were confident tonight that the bill, practically complete now, would be signed by President Wilson before the end of this week. It will scarcely leave the center of the stage before the currency bill, next in line, will be forced upon the attention of the country and coincident with consideration with this will begin the administration work upon the anti-trust and railroad control programs that are to be brought forward when the December session opens. President Wilson is satisfied that with the tariff bill out of the way, congress will take up the currency question prepared to dispose of it before adjournment.

There is a growing belief among supporters of the administration bill that the senate will take up the currency question at an early date, even though its banking and currency committee has not settled the details of the bill.

The tariff conference report went to the house today soon after that body convened at noon. Senators Simmons, Williams, Johnson and Shively and Representatives Underwood, Kitchin, Dixon and Rainey, the Democrats who have adjusted all differences between the senate and house, excepting only the cotton futures tax proposition, signed the final report, while the Republicans and Progressive members declined to sign.

House May Pass Bill Today.

The house will take up the tariff bill when it convenes tomorrow and it is believed that it will be passed before adjournment. It is expected to reach the senate Wednesday and to pass that body by Thursday.

The cotton future tax is still in dispute the house refusing to accept the so-called Clark amendment adopted by the senate. Expressions from the white house and congressional leaders today, however, indicated that in the final conference over this feature the whole plan might be dropped from the tariff bill and taken up as a separate measure next winter.

Senator Simmons, chairman of the senate finance committee, gave out tonight the first complete estimates of federal revenues and expenditures under the next tariff bill as made up by the experts from the treasury.

Federal Revenues.

The total estimates are as follows:
For the year ending July 1, 1914.
—Receipts, $1,029,000,000; expenditures, $1,013,000,000; surplus, $16,000,000.

For the year ending July 1, 1915.
—Receipts, $1,026,000,000; expenditures, $1,008,000,000; surplus, $18,000,000.

The estimated receipts under the customs tariff, the income tax and the corporation tax embraced in the new tariff are given as follows:

For 1914—Customs revenues, $270,000,000; income tax (ten months), $66,000,000; corporation tax, $38,000,000.

Customs revenues, $249,000,000; income tax, $83,000,000; corporation tax, $39,000,000.

The customs revenues will be larger for the current fiscal year, 1914, said Senator Simmons, "because the rates of the Payne-Aldrich law have been in force for the first quarter and will continue in force on wool and woolen goods until January 1 and on sugar until March 1. When the next fiscal year begins, July 1, 1914, all the rates of the new law will be in operation and the tariff duties collected will be smaller."

The income tax, which is collected for the calendar year, can be collected for only ten months of the present year, as the law specifies that collection shall not go back of March 1, 1913. The estimated decrease in the total expenditures of the government for 1915, $5,000,000, is based on the fact that small expenditures are expected for the army and navy estimates.

The balance of the total estimates, as given in the treasury estimates, is made up of postal receipts, internal revenue receipts, the profits from public land sales and other sources of federal income.

SULZER WINS A TRIPLE VICTORY OVER ACCUSERS

EVIDENCE TO PROVE HE MADE A COR-RUPT POLITICAL BARGAIN BARRED

Assembly Managers Draw Near to End of Their Case—Introduce Into Evidence a Bank Account of Man
Who Said He Loaned Sulzer $26,- 000.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Governor Sulzer today won a triple victory over his accusers at the trial of his impeachment. Presiding Judge Cullen of the high court barred the introduction of evidence intended to prove that the governor made corrupt political bargain with Assemblyman Patrie of Greene county and held that the testimony brought forward to show that he had made similar bargains with Assemblyman Sweet of Oswego county and Assemblyman Prime of Essex was incompetent.

The legislation had to do in each case with highway and bridge improvements provided for in bills passed by the legislature to which the assemblymen were desirous of getting the governor's signature. With the introduction of evidence of three campaign contributions not reported in the governor's sworn statement of campaign receipts and of more evidence concerning the governor's alleged Wall street speculations, the assembly managers drew near the end of their case today. It was announced that with the calling of possibly two more contributors and one or two other witnesses tomorrow the case against the governor probably would be completed. The long missing Frederick L. Colwell, in Wall street transactions, is in a sanitarium, according to counsel for the governor but will consent to testify as the governor's witness under stipulation that he not be placed under arrest for refusing to obey the subpoena of the Fraley investigating committee. Counsel for the managers had not decided tonight whether to agree to this stipulation.

Just at the close of the session today the assembly managers introduced into evidence a bank account of Hugh J. Riley, a contractor and railroad builder for the Cuban government, who recently announced that he had loaned Governor Sulzer $26,000 in cash. Riley had relations with Sulzer when the latter was chairman of the foreign affairs committee in congress. He may be a witness tomorrow.

FATALITY DUE TO RIOT BRINGS DEATH LIST UP TO ELEVEN

Three Whites and Eight Negroes
Killed in Disorder Inaugurated by Two Blacks.

HARRISON, Miss., Sept. 29.—Another fatality due to Sunday's riot brought the death list today up to eleven—three white persons and eight negroes. Homer Aiken, a negro, succumbed to wounds he received at the hands of the two Jones brothers, who inaugurated the disorder which ended when they were lynched. Local authorities today worked on the theory that the Jones boys were advised to being their murderous outburst and in a drug condition readily acquiesced. Their mother was taken into custody at Port Gibson, Miss., tonight. Detectives also are investigating John Prophet, a negro of Champaign, Ill., who recently came here and associated with the Jones boys a great deal. He, with Robert Patten, another negro is in jail. Prophet organized negro lodges, it is said.

SOUTHWEST LOUISIANA FLOODS REACH SERIOUS PROPORTIONS

Lake Charles is in Darkness—Southern Pacific Has Annulled All
Trains For New Orleans—Rice Crop Damaged.

Lake Charles, La., Sept. 29.—Floods in southwest Louisiana reached serious proportions today. Lake Charles is in darkness tonight and without street car service, high water having put the power plant out of commission. Many houses in the lower sections of the city are flooded and it still is raining. The Southern Pacific railroad has annulled all trains bound for New Orleans and three branch railroad lines running into this city suspended operations today. Conservative calculations are that unless the rain ceases within a day, not more than half a rice crop will be gathered. Much of the crop is in the fields because of previous lack of labor. Lumber companies have suffered damage from breaking of logbooms.

SCHOONER FROZEN IN.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Louise Lane, wife of the commander and owner of the power schooner Polar Bear, received a cable message from Nome today saying that the vessel had been frozen in near Flaxman Island in longitude 146, at the mouth of Canning river. This means that the ship and men must remain in the Arctic until next summer.

DISAPPROVES PROJECT

Washington, Sept. 29.—Secretary Garrison today made public a report from Brigadier General Bixby of the army engineer's disapproving Chicago's lake front park project on the ground that it would interfere with commercial development.

EXPLAINS DETAILS OF INCOME TAX PLAN

Treasury Department Prepares for Flood of Questions About
New Source of Revenue

WILL DISTRIBUTE BLANKS

Taxable Person Is Not Exempted from Penalties of the Law Even If He Does Not Receive a Request to Pay

WILL MAKE REQUIREMENTS CLEAR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The treasury department is preparing for a flood of questions about the new income tax, realizing that this feature of the tariff bill about to become a law strikes more intimately at the tax paying citizen than do the indirect taxes collected through the customs duties. One of the first steps taken to get general information before the public will be to distribute income tax blanks through postoffice, internal revenue officers and other federal agencies. However, the fact that he does not receive a blank or a request to pay the tax will not exempt a taxable person from the penalties of the law.

Gives Detailed Explanation.
Representative Cordell Hull of Tennessee, who drew the income tax provision of the tariff bill which will soon become law, made public today a detailed explanation of the tax plan as it will touch the individual.

"The treasury regulations soon to be prepared will make clear to every taxpayer the requirements of the law and its application to income derived from the various kinds of business," Mr. Hull said. "Any person who keeps familiar with his business affairs, during the year should have no difficulty in executing his tax return."

"The income tax is divided into two phases, the 'normal' tax of one per cent on the whole income above three thousand dollars and the additional tax that begins with an extra one percent above $20,000 and is graduated to six percent above $500,000. Whether the income tax is paid 'at the source' by a corporation for its employees or in similar cases only the one percent normal tax is so paid. The individual has to pay any additional tax himself. The provisions of the law requiring the tax to be withheld at the source does not take effect until November 1, 1913."

"For the first year the citizen will make return to the local internal revenue collector before March 1, 1914, as to his earnings from March 1, 1913 to the end of this year. The collector will notify him June 1, how much he owes and the tax must be paid by June 30th. After next year the tax will apply on the full calendar year."

"If the income of a person is under $3,000 or if the tax upon same is withheld for payment at the source or if the same is to be paid elsewhere in the United States affidavit may be made to such fact and thereupon no return will be required."

Persons Affected by Tax.

"The tax covers all incomes of citizens of the United States whether living here or abroad, those of foreigners living in the United States and the net incomes from property or business carried on by people living abroad."

"Net income includes all income from salaries or any compensation for personal services, incomes from trades, professions, business or commerce, from sales or dealings in personal property or real estate; from interest, rent, dividends from securities for all business carried on for gain."

"Requests will not be considered income, nor will life insurance paid to a beneficiary or returned to the insured person as a paid up or surrendered policy, be taxable. Interest on such property will be included as income, however."

"The amount that may be deducted from a total income includes the costs of carrying on business, actual losses, depression allowance and tax-exemptor tax paid money."

"Living expenses cannot be deducted nor can money sent for permanent improvements to property."

"The form that is to be filled out by the taxpayer will be drawn up soon by the commissioner of internal revenue. The tax payer will have to give his gross revenue and then specify and claim the deductions to which he feels entitled."

"Unless a man's income tax is paid at the source he must hunt up a tax blank, fill it out and see that it finds its way to the proper federal official in his district before March 1, 1914."

CHARGES DISMISSED.

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 29.—All charges against Maury I. Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti which have been pending in the courts here since their arrest and the criminal charge of contributing to the dependency of the minor children of Diggs and Caminetti which were pending against Lola Norris and Marsha Warrington were dismissed by Superior Judge Hughes and Township Justice Clark today on the motion of the district attorney. There is still pending in the juvenile court a petition to declare Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris dependent children.

WOODRUFF STRICKEN AT CLOSE OF SPEECH

SUFFERS STROKE OF PARALYSIS AT FUSION NOTIFICATION MEETING

Condition Is Considered Serious by Physicians—Was for Thirty Years a Prominent Political Figure in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Timothy L. Woodruff, former lieutenant governor of New York and for nearly 30 years a political figure in New York, was stricken tonight in Carnegie Hall, just as he concluded an address at the Fusion notification meeting. Physicians who attended Mr. Woodruff announced that he suffered a stroke of paralysis and said his condition was serious.

As he was speaking, Mr. Woodruff turned to John Purroy Mitchell, the Fusionist candidate for mayor, and complained of a pain in his knee. He continued his address, however, but as concluded, he reeled and would have fallen had not Mr. Mitchell and others on the platform supported him. Mr. Woodruff was carried to an ante-room where he was attended by physicians. Later he was removed to his apartments in an uptown hotel, accompanied by Mrs. Woodruff, who had attended the meeting with him. Mr. Woodruff was for many years prominent in Republican national politics and in the 1908 convention nominated James Schoolcraft Sherman for vice president. When Theodore Roosevelt organized the Progressive party, Mr. Woodruff left the Republicans and aligned himself with the colonel. Shortly before midnight John E. Woodruff, as on of Mr. Woodruff, who had been summoned from Greenwich, Conn., arrived at the hotel. Later he gave out a statement denying that his father was suffering from a paralytic stroke and declaring Mr. Woodruff was "suffering from a complete nervous breakdown."

Candidates Formally Notified.

John Purroy Mitchell, Fusion candidate for mayor and other Fusion candidates were formally notified tonight of their nomination. Mr. Mitchell, opening the campaign with an attack on Charles F. Murphy in connection with the Sulzer impeachment proceedings, told the audience that packed Cooper Union that Tammany is the issue the city faces.

Henry L. Stimson, formerly secretary of war, presided, and Timothy L. Woodruff, Norman Hapgood, chairman of the Fusion committee, and others spoke. A sensational episode of the meeting was the sudden serious illness of Mr. Woodruff.

HOLD-UP OF MAIL AND EXPRESS TRAIN PREVENTED BY CONFESSION

Would-be Bandit Becomes Conscience-stricken and Unfolds Plans to New Orleans Authorities—One Arrest Made.

BULLETIN.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 30.—At 12:30 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning the police said Oliver had confessed and told them investigation on Boatright's record would show he had been connected with other train hold-ups. The police expect to make another arrest.

New Orleans, Sept. 2.—The hold-up of another mail and express train in the south was prevented tonight when one of the would-be bandits became conscience-stricken and unfolded the plans to New Orleans authorities, according to information given out by the police. The plan, it is said, was to hold up the fast New York-New Orleans, Louisville & Nashville train between here and Bay St. Louis just before it arrived in this city.

According to the story of the police Clarence Boatright came to headquarters this morning and told them of the plan. The police watched the place where Alfred E. Oliver, who, it is said, planned the robbery, had been lodging and about midnight he was arrested in his room. The police say they found several small steel saws in his clothing.

FORMER IOWA CONGRESSMAN DROPS DEAD OF HEART DISEASE

Major John F. Lacey of Oskaloosa
Stricken at Doorway of His Home.

Oskaloosa, Iowa, Sept. 29.—John F. Lacey, former Iowa congressman for the sixth Iowa congressional district, dropped dead here today from heart disease. Major Lacey fell dead at the doorway of his home after having returned from a trip down town. When he was greeted by his wife at the door he complained of feeling ill and she handed him a glass of water which he did not finish before the final stroke. The family physician pronounced his death due to apoplexy.

Major Lacey, who was prominent in the civil war as a union officer, represented the Sixth Iowa district in congress, being elected as a Republican.

FIND COUNTERFEIT COINS.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Several hundred dollars in counterfeit coins were found today when secret service officials searched the rooms of Charles F. Kohman, arrested on a charge of counterfeiting. They also found nearly $1,000 in genuine bills which Kohman said he had acquired by passing spurious coins.

ALLEGED U. S. TROOPS CROSSED BORDER

Federal Officers at Juarez Assert American Cavalrymen Pursued Mexican Woodcutters

CHARGE TROOPS BEGAN FIRE

Report States That After Searching Wagon, U. S. Soldiers Allow Mexicans to Depart, But Begin Shooting as They Start

INTERPRETS WILSON'S PROCLAMATION

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 29.—That ten American cavalrymen of Troop H, Second Cavalry, crossed into Mexico last Saturday and began shooting at three Mexican woodcutters is the version of an international shooting incident near San Elizario, which has been given out by the federal officials of Juarez. To prove their assertions, Col. Juan N. Vasquez, military commander of Juarez, showed a hat which one of the United States soldiers is alleged to have lost when the three woodcutters returned the rifle fire of the American soldiers and forced them to retreat, it was alleged. To the American side of the international boundary line. In one report of the affair, received by the federal officials of Juarez, it was said that three Mexican line riders assisted the woodcutters in driving the American soldiers off after the shooting began.

Alleged American Began Fire.

The woodcutters are alleged to have represented to the Juarez municipal authorities that they were on the Mexican side of the river with a wagon cutting wood, when the American soldiers appeared on the American side of the boundary with their arms. The troopers, said the report, followed the Mexicans about two miles into Mexico. The soldiers finally caught up with the woodcutters, it is alleged, and searched the wagon. Then it is said they allowed the woodcutters to depart but as the Mexicans started, all the soldiers began shooting at them. The woodcutters were armed with rifles and immediately returned the fire, finally succeeding in forcing the United States troopers to retreat to the American side of the river.

The account of the occurrence which reached this city from San Elizario Saturday night stated that the American soldiers were on duty on the American side of the border when thirty Mexican federal cavalry appeared on the Mexican side and opened fire on them without provocation.

Interprets Wilson's Proclamation.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Horses and saddles, hay and other feed stuffs intended for the Mexican federal army or the revolutionists are not munitions of war and may be exported from the United States into Mexico, without restriction. This decision was given today by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hamilton in interpreting the president's proclamation of March 4, 1912, forbidding the exportation of munitions of war to Mexico. Mr. Hamilton followed an opinion by Attorney General McInnes, which held that munitions of war made contraband by proclamation were articles offered and primarily and ordinarily used for military purposes in time of war.

Four Hundred Die in Battle.

Piedras Negras, Mex., Sept. 29.—More than four hundred federal and rebel dead were left on the field below Barroteran, where a fierce struggle took place between the two forces Saturday and Sunday, according to reports brought to constitutionalists headquarters today.

Both sides were compelled to retire from the field last night because of lack of water and ammunition, the constitutionalists falling back to Sabinas, where they dynamited the great railroad bridge crossing the Sabinas river to prevent another attack from the federal army under General Maas. Eye-witnesses said a desperate hand to hand fighting occurred after exhaustion of the revolutionists' ammunition and that the federalists at one time were on the point of fleeing from the field when they were rallied by their officers. The dead are piled high where these conflicts took place. Both sides agreed to a virtual armistice late Sunday to care for the wounded.

Rebels Take Panzacoala.

Vera Cruz, Sept. 29.—Panzacoala, outside of Puebla, was attacked and taken early this morning by rebels. The town was sacked and when a passenger train arrived from Puebla no way to Apizaco, the engineer was killed and the fireman badly wounded. All the passengers were robbed of their possessions. Two officers belonging to the federal army who were passengers on the train were put to death.

A great sensation has been caused here over the incident. Practically the entire bed of the railway has been torn up between Panzacoala and that station beyond.

POLICE HOLD MULLATO.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 29.—Spots suggestive of bloodstains, discovered on the clothing of Robert Askew, the mulatto, caused the police today to reconsider their determination to release the man and he will be held pending further investigation of the murder of Mrs. Rebecca P. Gay, who was slain in her consultation room some time last Friday evening.

INJUNCTION AGAINST PICKETING DISSOLVED

OFFICERS PREPARE TO HANDLE EX-PECTED ACTIVITIES OF STRIKERS

Noisy Demonstrations in Celebration
Held at Keeweenaw County Mines
—Judge Says That Court Stands
Ready to Extend Full Protection of the Law.

CALUMET, Mich., Sept. 29.—Circuit Judge O'Brien today dissolved the temporary injunction against picketing and parading by copper mine strikers and General Abber of the state troops and Sheriff Cruz tonight made preparations to handle expected activities of the strikers tomorrow. Picketing was resumed generally throughout the district tonight. Noisy demonstrations in celebration of their injunction victory were held by the strikers at the Keeweenaw county mines.

Judge O'Brien in his decision made it plain that he considered there were three parties whose rights must be protected in the present circumstances. The companies, the men who are willing to work and the strikers. He said that the court stands ready to extend full protection of the law to each and any of these three. He said that while he was ready to protect those who desired to work, he felt the strikers have a right to organize and to make an effort to persuade others peacefully to refrain from working for the purpose of strengthening the position of the strikers.

The Ahme Mining company will be the first of the Calumet and Hecla subsidiary companies to use strike-breakers. A train load arrived here tonight. Another party of strike-breakers has been added to the force already on hand at the Quincy mine and preparations are being made for more.

GIRL WHO ATTEMPTED SUICIDE SHOWN ELLIS' PHOTOGRAPH

Danville Girl Declares He Is Not the Man She Married in July Under the Name of Anderson.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 29.—Audrey Baker Anderson, the Danville, Ill., girl, who attempted suicide here last week, at a hospital today declared, when shown a photograph of Joseph Ellis, who is sought by the police here as the man who lured Joseph Schlansky, a merchant, to a room in the Onida hotel and murdered him, that he is not the man to whom she was married in Danville July 5, under the name of Roy Anderson. The photograph was sent her by Ellis' family from Richmond, Va.

The girl previously had identified a picture of Fred Brokaw, wanted in Pittsburgh for robbery and for a time confused with Ellis, as her husband and gave as her reason for attempting her life that her husband was a murderer. The man who killed Schlansky registered at the hotel here as "W. R. Anderson." The girl's description of Anderson tallied with the description of Ellis furnished by his family and it was believed that her husband and Ellis were the same.

The Danville girl is slowly improving at the hospital from a bullet wound in the lung and physicians now say she will recover.

The police search for the slayer of Schlansky is being continued throughout the country and a number of suspects have been arrested, but all have been released according to local police.

REXROAT TESTIFIES TO CORONER'S JURY

Former Husband of Murdered
Chicago Dancing Teacher Is Questioned

"MR. SPENCER" DISAPPEARS

Pupil of Mrs. Rexroat's Dancing Class Who Accompanied Her from Chicago on Night of Tragedy Cannot Be Found

MISSING MAN IS KEY TO THE MYSTERY

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Everett A. Rexroat, Macomb county farmer, husband of Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat, Chicago dancing teacher shot to death near Wayne, Ill., Saturday, today told a coroner's jury the history of his acquaintance and life with Mrs. Rexroat. His testimony together with that of W. H. Allison, her divorced husband, and others who knew something of the circumstances under which Mrs. Rexroat visited Wayne, failed to throw any light on the identity of the slayer and an adjournment of the coroner's inquest was taken until Thursday to permit the police to seek more evidence. The efforts of the police now are centered in a search for "Mr. Spencer," a pupil of Mrs. Rexroat's dancing class, reported to have been infatuated with her and who she had said had arranged for her to teach a private class at Wheaton and who accompanied her from Chicago on the night she met her death.

A switch of woman's hair and a number of "rats" of the sort used by women in dressing their hair, found in the Chicago yards of the Burlington railroad, today was identified as having belonged to Mrs. Rexroat. The hair is taken by the police to indicate that the murderer fled to Chicago, discovered the hair while looting Mrs. Rexroat's suite case and threw it away.

Tells Nothing Startling.

Rexroat's testimony developed nothing startling. It was a story of his meeting the woman at a dance hall, his visiting her and their marriage at Crown Point, Ind., Oct. 26, because she having been divorced from her first husband only a few weeks, the Illinois law prevented their marriage in this state. The couple lived for a time with Rexroat's parents on the farm near Macomb. Then she came to Chicago so that her three children could have the advantage of the schools here.

"She intended to come back to me," Rexroat said.

C. A. Goodman, who lives in Wheaton and who occupied the seat in the train in front of Mrs. Rexroat and a man, said the couple discussed new dances; that the man spoke of his income being larger than most other men's salaries and they talked about diamonds.

The mysterious Mr. Spencer is believed by the police to be the only one who can tell the real truth of the murder. The officers are searching for Mrs. Rexroat's rattle suit case which disappeared after her death and say the discovery of the suit case will lead them to Spencer.

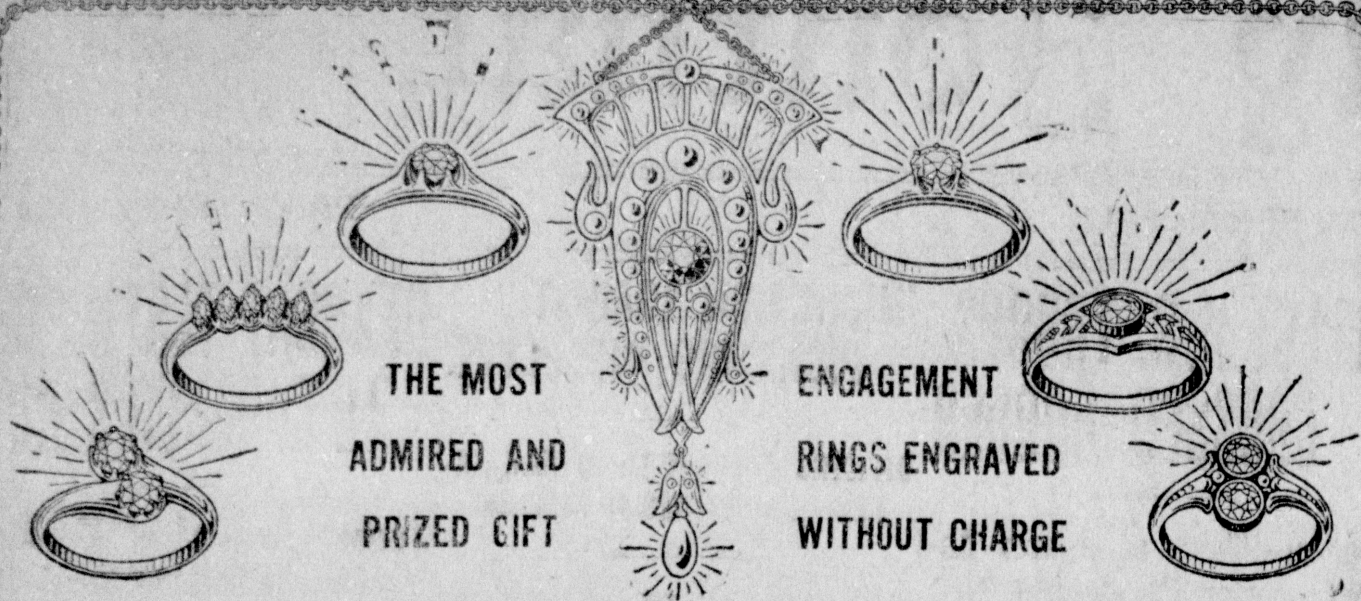

Mrs. Victor J. Johnson, with whom Mrs. Rexroat boarded, told of a telephone talk the woman had the night of her death, with a man she called Mr. Spencer; that Mrs. Rexroat becoming excited couldn't continue the conversation and she did so for her and at the direction of Mrs. Rexroat made an appointment to meet "Mr. Spencer" at the Aurora & Elgin depot. The next morning, Mrs. Johnson said, she received a telephone message telling her that Mrs. Rexroat would not return, that she was going east to be married. The voice was that of the same man who talked the night previous, Mrs. Johnson declared.

The woman's divorced husband also said that a Chicago city detective had been infatuated with her and that she had gone out with him frequently during the last year. Allison could not recall the detective's name nor his station. Allison also indicated that his former wife had accumulated some property, had money in banks in her own name and that of each of her three children.

Rexroat convinced State's Attorney Hedley of DuPage county that he had no part in the murder. He went back to Macomb tonight but promised to return if his testimony be needed in the future.

SERVICE MONDAY PROMISES GOOD WEEK FOR REVIVAL

Dr. Rees Speaks on "This Man Receiveth Sinners"—Cottage Prayer Meetings This Afternoon.

The large audience who, in spite of the continued damp weather, came to the tent Monday evening to hear the evangelist discuss the Redeemer and his power to save, augurs well for the success of the meetings throughout the week. Taking his text from Luke, 15:2, Dr. Rees spoke very effectively on "This Man Receiveth Sinners." The choir was well attended and the music up to standard. Not a little of the success of the music of the meetings has been due to the interest and faithfulness of the pianist, J. Philip Read.

The Services This Week.
For the remainder of the week the subjects of the services will be as follows:

Tonight—"The Secret of a Happy Home."

Wednesday at 7:30—"Satan's Relation to Popular Amusements or Satan Came Also."

Thursday, 3 p. m., for women—"Some Things That Keep Women From Becoming Christians."

Thursday evening there will be held simultaneously meetings both for men and women, the former in Northminster church and the latter in the tent. The women's meeting in the tent will be addressed by Dr. Rees on "The Twentieth Century Sodomy."

A feature which will be appreciated by mothers at every service this week is the provision for the taking care of the younger children in Northminster church.

The Cottage Prayer Meetings.

Christ and the Sinner.

Dr. Rees named four classes of sinners who can not enter the kingdom of heaven. They are:

1. The unbelieving sinner.

2. The unrepentant sinner.

3. The Pharisaical.

4. The man who sins by his hypocrisy.

But there is hope, for the sinner who would be receiveth by his Lord need but ally himself with one of the following classes:

1. The believing sinner.

2. The repentant sinner.

3. The confessing sinner.

Christ receiveth great sinners, great in time and degree. There are those who will say they will do better after marriage. Matrimonial reformation does not reform. The only true reformation can take place through the blood of Christ. It may be asked, "How Does Christ Receive Men?"

He receives them just as they are. Under the U. S. government a man must possess certain qualifications to obtain a position. With Christ it is "Just as I Am."

Christ receives men in love. He receives us into heaven, so that we rejoice, not only in the forgiveness of sin here, but in the glorification hereafter.

The Meetings Sunday.

"Profit and Loss" was the subject of a strong address by Dr. Rees Sunday night. Over 1,500 people braved the rainy weather and came out to this third Sunday evening service of the meetings. The sermon was based on the text, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

After a special song service led by Mrs. Rees Sunday afternoon in which participated an excellent chorus of male voices, Dr. Rees addressed the one thousand men assembled on the "Twentieth Century Sodomy." He chose his text from the passage on Genesis wherein Jehovah says to Lot, "Escape for thy life."

Those who are unsaved are dwelling in the twentieth century Sodomy. They include the dwellers on the streets of worldliness, self-righteousness, indifference and neglect. Especially condemned are those who live on the avenue of infidelity. Profanity, Robbing and Immorality are the names of more of the streets of the dread city where dwell only the lost. There are two gates by which the sinner may find an exit and above them shine forth the letters "Faith" and "Obedience."

uel Undermyer of New York. Many of the changes proposed by Mr. Undermyer went to vital points of the bill. Criticizing the bill's definition of commercial paper on which currency would be issued as "loose and unrestricted," Mr. Undermyer declared that the lines should be strictly drawn to allow the issue of currency only on commercial paper representing the purchase or sale of a commodity which would enter into commerce. He recommended allowing the proposed regional reserve banks to re-discount a wider range of paper than would be eligible as a basis for paper. Mr. Undermyer also recommended altering the plan of organization of the proposed regional reserve banks. He would give the national banks ninety days in which to subscribe the capital and deposits for the regional banks and if it was not forthcoming would throw the stock books open to public subscription, closely restricting the powers of subscribers in controlling the bank. This plan, he said, would tend to force the banks to enter the system.

The bill as at present framed, Mr. Undermyer declared, gave the banks themselves too much power in the organization and control of the proposed new system. He recommended that the proposed advisory council of banks as adjunct to the federal reserve board be abolished and that government be given closer powers of regulation and removal over regional reserve directors elected by the banks.

He urged, however, that the banks be given a flat profit of 6 per cent on their investment in the regional banks and that the government be given all profits above that figure. The right of the regional banks to enter the open market in competition with the member banks was absolutely necessary, he said, in order that the regional banks might control and maintain the rate of discount which the bill gives them the right to fix. Mr. Undermyer disagreed flatly with a scheme advanced by Senators Reed, Hitchcock and Brister under which the government would issue currency directly to the individual banks on their assets, up to 75 per cent of their capital stock, with a provision for a 50 per cent gold reserve. This plan, he said, would be inelastic and impractical.

The demand for men and women's sweaters coats this season expects to far any previous year. FRANK BYRNS' Hat Store shows a wide range of styles at most reasonable prices.

MAY ABOLISH CLASS RUSH AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

The ancient sophomore-freshman class "scrap" at Illinois college bids fair to be eliminated this year, according to reports from the "hill," which tell of plans for its replacement by a football game between representatives of the opposing classes. The game will in all probability be played the latter part of the week. The new plan commends itself to many on account of the precedents being established by other colleges who have abolished the barbarities of the "color rush" and on account of lessened liability of the participants to accident.

FOUND INDIAN AXE.

A few days since Christian German residing in the southwest part of the county was plowing in a field on his farm when he turned up a wonderfully large and perfect stone axe such as were used in the pre-historic times. It is nearly ten inches long, sharpened at both ends and has a groove in the middle, is grey and perfect in appearance. He left it at the Jacksonville National bank where it can be seen.

Economical Buying

Economy in buying comes from making comparison. This means more than merely comparing prices. It means also comparing values, which is of greater importance. Studying over a few prices and keeping posted only on certain lines gets the purchaser very little, because they usually pay more on the items to which they give least attention than they save on all the others.

Customers, however, who have consistently made purchases here and who have really given attention to both the quality and the price we continually offer have been convinced that this store can be made of household and table economy and we can easily prove to customers that we can save them money and yet give them the very best.

Quality Goods in Bulk

We not herewith some offerings on which we lay special stress and on which we invite comparison. Most of these goods are offered in bulk and that means handling them in the least expensive way possible. Consult us on these:

Bulk Macaroni, Bulk Rolled Oats, Bulk Corn Meal, Roberts' Roasted Coffee, Roberts' High Grade Baking Powder, Kitchen Kleanser, Monarch Brand Pure Food Products.

DRUGS

Our pharmacy is complete and up-to-date and many of the remedies and specialties we sell are under our own label and with our special guarantee behind them. As of particular interest now we mention Roberts' Cold Tablets, Roberts' Almond Cream, Roberts' Dyspepsia Tablets, Roberts' Headache Wafers, Roberts' Flavouring Extracts, Roberts' Laxative Tablets, Roberts' Tar and Wild Cherry Cough Syrup.

Just remember it will be our very great pleasure to serve you from our grocery or pharmacy departments, knowing that once a customer you will appreciate the service we can afford you.

MEETS DEATH BENEATH WHEELS

PATRICK GUINANE RUN DOWN BY "Q" FREIGHT TRAIN.

Well Known Farmer of Scott County Instantly Killed at His Home Near Alsey—Coroner Quinn Will Conclude Inquest Today—Foul Play Suspected.

Patrick Guinane, a well known farmer of Scott county, was run over and instantly killed at his home near Alsey Sunday morning between 4 and 5 o'clock by a C. E. & Q. extra freight train. Mr. Guinane had been to Beardstown and had gotten off the "Q" passenger train, which preceded the freight train about an hour and a half. His mangled body was found about 7 o'clock by Jesse Cammery, who notified Coroner Michael Quinn.

A jury was empaneled by the coroner consisting of G. B. Willis, Thomas Peak, T. C. Hill, W. H. Wack, Edgar Hainey and Louis Day. About fifteen witnesses were examined Monday and the inquiry will continue this afternoon, beginning at 1 o'clock. It was brought out in the inquest that Mr. Guinane had gone to Beardstown the evening before and was returning home on the early morning passenger. At the place where the body was first struck by the train, there were two bottles of whiskey, setting in the middle of the track with the necks broken off them, but the contents still in the bottles. It was also observed that the head was laying on one rail and the feet on the other.

The man was horribly mangled, nothing left of his face but the chin. He had an arm and leg severed and it was with the greatest difficulty that he was recognized. The fact that the inquest was held over until today has led to the story that Mr. Guinane might have met with foul play, and the jurymen will continue further their inquiry as to the position of the body and of the bottles. It was a question also with the jury as to why his body was found a half a mile from the Alsey station, opposite the direction Mr. Guinane would take on the track to reach his home. At the place where he was killed there is a curve, and the headlight does not shine exactly on the tracks, so that the trainmen had no knowledge of seeing the body.

Mr. Guinane was born March 20, 1882, near Alsey, Ill., and always resided in that community, following the occupation of farming. He married Miss Sadie Dwyer of Chicago and they were the parents of five children, who with the wife survive, Madeline, Chester, Gregory, Lillie and Josephine. He also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Frank Rasmussen of Merritt, Mrs. Richard Thorpy of Chicago, Mrs. Earl Tablock of Alsey, and two brothers, Michael Guinane of Alsey and James, residing near that place. He was a member of the St. Mark's Catholic church of Winchester.

The funeral services will be held at the Winchester Catholic cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock, in charge of Rev. Father Bell.

How to Cure Cholera Morbus.
Many cases of this disease result fatally before medicine can be obtained or a physician summoned. It is easily cured when the proper remedy is at hand. Mrs. Charles Stewart of Mt. Collins, N. Y., says: "When my husband had cholera morbus last summer he used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it cured him promptly." Every family should keep this remedy at hand. It only costs a quarter. For sale by all dealers. (Adv.)

DEAR FRIENDS AND PATRONS:—

The Fall season is now upon us—with real winter "just around the corner." As the mercury drops from day to day, and the chilly winds blow, you are brought face to face with the urgency of procuring cold weather wearables. New dresses are to be bought—gloves, hosiery, underwear for the whole family, warm blankets—and the hundred and one other things that contribute to your comfort.

It is at just such a time that I desire to come into closer touch with the public and tell you in this personal sort of way of this store—its goods—its service.

As I look over the gigantic stocks that fill every shelf, showcase and counter and recall what a thorough search of the market has been made to accomplish this result—how fashion's latest whims were met—how carefully the dependability of every article purchased was investigated—and how bargain after bargain was driven—I feel at liberty to extend an invitation broadcast to every woman in Jacksonville's trade limits to bring her dry goods wants to this store, with full confidence that her every need can be satisfactorily filled.

Perhaps some of you who read this letter have never visited this store—and do not know that it is "The Store for Dress Goods and Silks." If so, we extend to you a special invitation to investigate our claim. Come in some day this week, look around, note the low prices on the many beautiful things you see displayed, and see if you do not discover as many others are doing daily, that this is a splendid place to trade.

You will find our sales force to be courteous and pleasant to deal with, thoroughly posted about fabrics and styles and a real help in selecting goods for your special requirement.

The styles in women's apparel this season are more attractive than ever—gorgeous effects are sought after and are developed chiefly from broadened weaves. We are prepared to meet this demand to the perfect satisfaction of the most critical. Our dress fabric section is the wonder section of the whole store. It is kept right up to the minute in styles and down to bed-rock in prices.

Trusting that I may soon have the pleasure of meeting you in the store, I beg to remain,

Yours Respectfully,

E. B. HARMON.

FEAR FOR SAFETY OF LUTHERAN MISSIONARIES IN CHINA

Headquarters at Wahpeton, N. D., Receives Report That Eight Foreigners Have Been Captured by Bandits at TsaoYang.

Wahpeton, N. D., Sept. 29.—Fears occasioned by a recent communication from the Lutheran Brethren Mission station at TsaoYang, China, to the mission's headquarters here, telling of attacks by brigands upon members of the mission colony, were intensified tonight by reports from Peking that eight foreigners at TsaoYang had been captured by bandits. Rev. Lillehei, president of the Lutheran Bible school here, which supplies the TsaoYang station with workers, said tonight that the missionaries now assigned to that post are: Rev. and Mrs. George Holm, Rev. and Mrs. Marjorie Werdel, Rev. and Mrs. H. Fauske, Rev. and Mrs. Elliott Aandahl and child and Miss Ida Sather.

The communication recently received here from the Rev. Mr. Holm, in charge of the station, told of an attack upon a number of the workers by bandits. The Rev. Mr. Aandahl and Miss Sather were severely stabbed. The writer declared a reign of terror had existed in the TsaoYang region since the recent revolutionary outbreak.

Sending Troops to District. Peking, Sept. 29.—A missionary telegram received at Hankow today from Fancheng in the north of the province of Hu-Peh says: "On Friday bandits looted and still hold the town of TsaoYang. Eight foreigners, according to apparently authentic reports, were captured by them."

There is a mission station at TsaoYang belonging to the Hauges Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran synod of America. The station is offered by five men and six women.

Edward T. Williams, charge d'affaires of the American legation, made representations to the Chinese office today, calling for the protection of the American missionaries. The authorities are sending troops to the district.

A section of the tracks already constructed, was loaded on traction engines and with a large force of laborers transported to the disputed right of way. The police guard threatened to shoot the first man who made a move to lay the track. No one made such a move.

GOVERNOR WILL ATTEND CHARITY CONFERENCE

Will Make an Address on Social Legislation at Rockford Conference.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 29, 1913. Governor Dunne will visit Rockford on October 13 to attend the State Conference of Charities, which will be in session there from October 11 to the 14th. This will be his first visit to that section of Illinois since his inauguration.

According to present plans he will arrive in Rockford about noon on Monday, be the guest at luncheon of the Knights of Columbus, attend a meeting of the state boards and superintendents of the state charitable institutions during the afternoon and at 8 o'clock in the evening address a meeting of the State Conference in the Second Congregational church.

The governor's evening address will deal with the state charities and the question of social legislation. On the program with him that evening will be Dr. Katherine Bement Davis, superintendent of the New York reformatory for women, located at Bedford Hills and Dr. Graham Taylor, president of the National Conference of Charities, and one of America's foremost leaders in all movements for social betterment.

She has made an international reputation by her work among the delinquent and incorrigible girls, committed to her institution by the courts of New York. She has organized the reformatory on the honor system, and has put the girls to work in a great variety of occupations, including even building construction.

Dr. Davis works with the girls wherever they may be and personally directs their activities and education. Gov. Dunne has inaugurated the honor system among the men of the state prisons of Illinois. The new law, permitting the employment of convicts on the public roads, received his endorsement and was advocated by him. He has taken a keen interest in its operation and has seen the success of the first experiments with gratification.

Dr. Taylor is a noted authority on sociological and philanthropic questions. He has had wide practical experience as a result of which his work and his writings have carried his name to every section of our country.

PROBE TIM SULLIVAN'S DEATH

New York, Sept. 29.—A large number of witnesses have been summoned to testify at the inquest into the death of Representative Timothy D. Sullivan, known throughout the city as "Big Tim," which was begun by Coroner Healy today. Mr. Sullivan had been suffering for about a year with some mental disease which made him mentally irresponsible and having been kept in a sanatorium for some time, his brother, with an attendant, took the patient to Europe in the hope that the trip would benefit his condition. After their return this summer, Mr. Sullivan seemed to be somewhat improved but one day he disappeared under peculiar circumstances and nothing was seen or heard of him in spite of the most thorough search, until his mangled body was found at a railroad crossing in the Bronx borough. Persistent rumors that "Big Tim" had been feebly dealt with and that after he had been murdered his body had been placed upon the railroad track, induced District Attorney Whitman to start an investigation and it was decided to hold an inquest.

RELAYING CORNERSTONE

ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD. Boston, Sept. 29.—The cornerstone of St. Mary's Episcopal church at Newton Lower Falls, near this city, which was originally laid in 1813, was relaid today under appropriate ceremonies and in the presence of thousands of visitors from Boston and other cities and towns in this section of the state.

St. Mary's was the first Episcopal church in Newton. The congregation was organized in 1812 and in the following year the first church was built. The cornerstone was laid by the grand lodge of Masons of Massachusetts, assisted by the Meridian Lodge of Natick. Recently, when the old church building was thoroughly repaired, the old cornerstone was taken out and the box containing the old record examined. At the ceremony today the cornerstone was relaid by the same lodges, which laid the original cornerstone in 1813. In the evening there was a reception at the church and several of the surviving former rectors of the church delivered addresses.

MR. NEWMAN CRITICISES PROPOSED FRANCHISES

SUGGESTS THAT THEY DO NOT GUARD THE PEOPLE'S WELFARE.

Communication Dealing With This Subject Presented at Council Session Monday—Refers to Conversation With Mr. Miser on Utility Matters—Conditions in Other Cities Quoted.

At the city council session Monday morning Commissioner Newman presented a communication in which he criticized the franchise ordinances recently presented by Mayor Davis and suggested the franchise ordinances recently presented by Mayor Davis and suggested that the majority of council might have agreed with Mr. Miser to pass these franchises if Mr. Miser would make no stir in opposition to the proposed bond franchise. Mr. Newman expressed the opinion that the franchises guarded the rights of the company rather than those of the public. On the motion of Mayor Davis the communication was received and made a part of the records.

The second reading of the traffic ordinance was postponed as was the second reading of the light bond ordinance. Commissioner Brennan reported that an inspector had found that two of the boilers at the light plant are getting into bad condition and that it will not be long until new ones are needed, the old ones having been in use twenty years. On motion of Mr. Knollenberg with a second by Mr. Newman Commissioner Brennan was authorized to secure figures on the probable cost of two new tubular boilers. Mr. Newman's communication was not discussed and soon after it had been read the council adjourned. Mr. Newman's communication was as follows:

"To the Mayor and City Council: "I want to ask that you have the city attorney employ an engineer to go over the property of the McKinley system, that is the street railway, the electric light plant and the gas plants, so that if there are any alterations to be made in his ordinances he can make them so as to be fair to both parties.

"In regard to the ordinances that you requested the mayor to draw up, I supposed that it was the mayor that was to do it, but it appears that Mr. Chubbuck and Mr. Miser both had a hand in the work, and in these beautiful ordinances the McKinley system is getting more than they demanded. They were willing to give a 10c electricity and 3 per cent of the gross receipts of the street car line, but wanted $1.10 gas.

Company Ready to Reduce Rates. The mayor's letter to the council and the public is very misleading. He says the difference between 13 1/2 cent and 10 cent electricity is a saving to the people of $17,414.59, intimating that he was saving the people that amount of money. It is not so. The McKinley company wanted to make the reduction, well knowing that when the state utilities commission comes into office January 1 that they would not stand for any such charge as 13 1/2 cents unless there was a contract and would possibly reduce it to less than 10 cents.

Just now I would like to inform the city commissioners as to the cost of manufacturing electricity in the city of Jacksonville, as you may not be posted. After conferring with experts they state the cost would be between 8 and 8 1/2 mills, less than 1c a kilowatt. The expense of taking care of the wires, poles and reading meters, etc., would be about the same as making the electricity, making the total less than 2c per kilowatt. The people are all paying 13 1/2 cents for electricity in their homes. The company could well afford to reduce this charge to 10 cents and then some.

"The mayor states in his communication to the council that in the gas and electric ordinances clauses relative to the readjustment of rates every five years has been eliminated for the reason that immediately after the ordinances become effective the city council or any citizen may go before the state utility commission and ask for an investigation of the company's affairs, and if the state commission finds that either commodity is made cheaply it will so notify the company and its rates will have to be reduced. Now I will give the mayor credit for not being posted on the law and that Mr. Chubbuck and Mr. Miser have put one over on him. If the council should pass the mayor's ordinances and the people should ratify them, then the McKinley company would have the people of the throat good and proper for twenty years for 10c electricity and $1.10 gas, and no state utility commission could break the contract and raise or lower the price.

Favor the System. "The mayor says in all three ordinances the section relative to the city receiving a percentage of the gross receipts has been eliminated; also the section in the three ordinances relating to an examination of the books of the company has been stricken out, as is the section relating to the issue of bonds, but why go further in regard to these ordinances. They are altogether in favor of the McKinley system. Why do you not submit them to the city attorney for his O. K.?

In regard to the quality of the gas that has been served up to the people. Are they getting value received? It certainly is not worth $1.00 a 1,000 feet.

In regard to the street car franchise they pay for it in other cities and they ought to pay for it here. They run their cars to the city limits, north, east, south and west, and have never paid a cent for doing so, while a man with a horse and buggy or poor men with their express wagons have to pay two or three dollars a year for using the streets. Why crowd the poor man and give the syndicate everything?

"The mayor states as his reasons for cutting out the section in the three ordinances in regard to the company paying a per cent on their gross receipts is that the users of gas and electricity would pay the money received by the city. He may consider that good logic, but I claim it would come out of the profits of the company.

"I do not know whether the commissioners have read the ordinances prepared by the city attorney or not. He makes the price of electricity 10 cents with a sliding scale, with a proportionate reduction in the balance of their rates, the company to pay the city 1 per cent on the gross receipts of the electric light plant.

"The city attorney makes the price of gas $1.00 to all private consumers, the company to pay the city 1 per cent on the gross receipts of the gas plant. You will notice on the company's gas rate that they make the price to some people at $1.00 and others up to $1.15.

"The city railway franchise, the city attorney asks for 2 per cent on their gross receipts for the first ten years and 4 per cent for the next ten years.

"The franchises are all subject to certain conditions protecting the city's interest.

The Light Bond Issue. "I want to call your attention to my understanding with Mr. Miser. I will not call it an agreement, as he says he did not consider it that way. The city was to grant the McKinley system a franchise to sell electricity at 10 cents per kilowatt, gas at $1.10 per thousand, light the city with 200 arc lights at $60 a lamp, the street car franchise with certain conditions as in the city attorney's ordinances, and in return the company was to pay the city 3 per cent on its gross income of electric plant, gas plant and street car franchise which Mr. Miser represented to be about $25,000, which would net the city $7,500; this would leave the cost to the city for street light $4,500, and that he could commence work on the street lighting in ten days and complete it in sixty days.

"Mr. Miser acknowledges that he told me it looked good to him for both parties, and up to Monday evening, Sept. 15, it seemed to be satisfactory, but Tuesday morning he informed me that it was all off. "A majority of the city council want a $50,000 bond issue for an electric light plant. If my understanding with Mr. Miser had been consummated there would be no necessity for a bond issue.

MILWAUKEE WINS AMERICAN ASSOCIATION PENNANT

Association Closes Very Successful Season, Largely Due to the Closeness of the Race for the Flag.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—The American association closed today what President Chivington pronounced a very good season. Milwaukee is the new pennant winner, having won only yesterday after a race to the closeness of which is ascribed the success of the 1913 campaign. Four of six clubs were pennant contenders this year. Besides Milwaukee, Columbus early in the season, then Louisville, and finally Minneapolis battled at the top and the keenness of the race and the uncertainty of its outcome kept the fans all over the circuit interested.

JOHNSON DEFEATS CHAMPION ATHLETICS

ADD 36TH VICTORY TO HIS SEASON'S STRING.

Philadelphia Youngsters Never Have a Chance With the Big Pitcher and Are Shutout 1 to 0—Captain McBride Gets Diamond Watch For.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Walter Johnson added the 36th victory to his season's string here today by defeating the Champion Athletics 1 to 0. The big pitcher simply toyed with the Philadelphia youngsters, never exerting himself until men were on the bases.

Today was "McBride Day" having been set aside in honor of George McBride, Washington's captain and shortstop. He was presented with a handsome diamond watch for a huge basket of flowers by the "fans" of Washington. Vice-president Marshall made the presentation speech. Score: Philadelphia A. B. R. H. P. A. E. RIVAL LEADERS FOR WORLD'S TITLE

Mack and McGraw Are Rare Judges of Playing Ability.

CONNIE ONCE GREAT CATCHER

Philadelphia Boss Is a Cool, Collected Man, While New Yorker Has Fiery Temper—Latter Continually Flaming New Plays—Mack, Like Chance, Avoids the Coaching Lines.

The leaders of the opposing teams in the forthcoming world's championship games are probably the two best known green diamond field marshals in the country.

Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics is of the cool, calculating type, while Johnny McGraw of the New York Nationals is a quick, snappy person, who has been ordered off the diamond so many times by umpires that he has forgotten to keep a record of them.

Mack caught for the Pirates from 1890 to 1896 and was the captain of the club for two years. The Athletics were members of the American league for the first time in 1901, but it was not until the next year that they won the pennant. They captured another flag under Mack's direction in 1905, but the Giants beat them in the world's series. In 1911 they won another championship and the world's title for the first time. Mack is anxious to capture one more, and then he will consider that he has captured his share of baseball laurels and retire.

Connie's proper name is Cornelius MacGillivray, but when he first broke into the big leagues the writers started calling him Connie Mack for short, and it has stuck to him so that the average fan thinks that it is his right name. He was born in East Brookfield, Mass.

The secret of Mack's success has been his ability to recognize ball players in the rough. He seldom has sought to corner stars, but has been content to secure unheard of players for small prices or generally no purchase price at all and teach them all of the fine points of the game.

There are few people who have ever seen Mack on the diamond in the past ten years. When he goes out to the grounds he stealthily winds his way to the players' bench, hides himself in a corner and never leaves the spot until the game is over. He is unlike McGraw, Jennings or any other manager, inasmuch as he never even goes down to the coaching lines, thus following Frank Chance's style.

It has often been asked as to what one would attribute John McGraw's success as a baseball manager. In the first place, his method of handling players conduces to getting the best possible results out of them. All players cannot be treated in the same manner. One man has to be patted upon the back, while another needs a sharp reprimand to make him put forth his best efforts or remedy his faults. McGraw has the supreme tact to em-play these opposite methods in the way that causes no friction with the team, with the result that all the men pull together for the success of the club.

Another great factor in McGraw's success is his knowledge of inside baseball. He is constantly planning to pull off the unexpected, and in the execution of his plans he always takes into consideration the abilities of the players called upon to carry out his scheme of play.

In the selection and retention of players McGraw's judgment is rarely at fault. When he became manager of the Giants one of his first acts was to release ten or twelve players. People who thought they knew declared he was letting some good material slip through his fingers, but only one man in the lot has retained a major league berth.

The trade by which New York acquired Tenney and Bridwell was much criticized, but the result has justified McGraw's judgment. McGraw has the nerve to stand by his own judgment, and this was never better exemplified than when Larry Doyle made good at second base. McGraw had faith in Doyle from the beginning of his first spring practice and was deaf to the general criticism that he was making a mistake.

John J. McGraw was born in Truxton, N. Y. He was always devoted to baseball, and in his early youth he was engaged to go to various towns to fill up gaps in semiprofessional clubs. Then he was regularly signed by the Bay City (Mich.) team.

HOW RECEIPTS AND ATTENDANCE AT TITLE GAMES HAVE INCREASED.

The amazing growth of the popularity of baseball is strikingly shown by the increase in attendance and in gate receipts from year to year at the world's series contests.

In 1884, when the first world's championship contest was played between the Providence team of the National league and the Metropolitans, winners of the American association pennant, the attendance was 2,000.

The receipts were about $15,000. The game was played on the old Polo grounds in New York city.

In 1905 the total attendance at the five championship games was 91,723.

In 1906, when the Chicago White Sox won the title from the Chicago Cubs, the receipts jumped to over $100,000.

In 1909 the gate receipts at the Pittsburgh-Detroit series were $183,325.00, the attendance 145,265.

In 1910, at the Athletics-Chicago series, the attendance was 124,222, the receipts $173,980.

The Athletics-New York contests in 1911 drew 179,851 persons and $342,164.

Last year the New York-Boston contests attracted 251,901 people, and the gate receipts were the enormous sum of $499,449.

Cookery Points

When Raspberries Are Ripe.

For breakfast raspberries can be served, cold and fresh, with cream, or they can be daintily served in glass dishes with a little sirup poured over them. To prepare them in this way choose plump, perfect berries and put them in a china or porcelain or glass dish. Make a sirup of equal parts of sugar and water boiled for ten minutes and pour it, hot, over the berries. Put them immediately on the ice and chill all night.

Raspberries can also be prepared in this way for luncheon and can be given a more piquant flavor if stemmed currants, half as many as there are berries, are added to them.

A hearty raspberry pudding, which is wholesome enough for children, is made thus: Thicken a quart of hot milk with a tablespoonful of flour rubbed smooth in a few tablespoonfuls of cold milk. Cook it for ten or fifteen minutes. Then add a saltspoonful of salt, a teaspoonful of vanilla, a cupful of fine breadcrumbs, the beaten yolks of four eggs, half a cupful of granulated sugar and the stiffly beaten white of one egg. Butter a baking dish and put the batter in it. Cover it thickly with fresh raspberries and sprinkle them generously with sugar and a few fresh, stemmed currants. Bake it in a moderate oven until it is firm. Then make a meringue of three egg whites beaten stiff and sweetened with four tablespoonfuls of granulated sugar and brown it in the oven. Serve either cold or hot with cream.

Raspberry Dumplings.

Raspberry dumplings that are light and delicate are made in this way: Boil a cupful of water with two tablespoonfuls of butter and add a cupful of sifted flour. Stir over the fire until the batter leaves the sides of the pan, then take from the fire and cool. Add four beaten eggs, two-thirds of a cupful of flour mixed with a scant teaspoonful of baking powder and pat it out in a thin layer. Cut rounds the size of the saucer of a teacup and on each round put two tablespoonfuls of berries. Pull the dough up to cover the fruit and bake in a buttered pan for thirty minutes in a moderate oven. Brush the dumplings before baking them to give them a glaze. Serve them hot or cold with a sauce made of raspberries and sirup or with hard sauce.

Delicious raspberry tarts can be made by cooking paste in patty tins, filling the shells with rice or beans in waxed paper to keep the paste from bubbling and filling the shells with fresh raspberries covered with sugar and whipped cream.

Raspberry Pudding.

A delicious raspberry pudding is made in individual portions. Have ready well buttered individual pudding or custard cups. Make a dough of two cupfuls of flour, a teaspoonful and a half of baking powder, half a teaspoonful of salt, all well sifted together, and enough milk to make it of the consistency to drop from a spoon. Fill each of the little cups about a third full of raspberries and cover them with dough. Be careful to let it reach only to within an inch of the tops of the cups. Steam it, tightly covered, over boiling water for twenty minutes and serve immediately with hard sauce.

For the sauce cream a cupful of granulated sugar with half as much butter. Beat the whites of two eggs stiff and add them to the butter and sugar and beat a few moments longer. Add a tablespoonful of brandy and a little grated nutmeg and put on the ice for half an hour before serving.

Raspberry Bavarian Cream.

Raspberry Bavarian cream is a hot day dessert which does not require freezing. To make it soak half a package of gelatin for two hours in half a cupful of cold water. In the meantime wash a quart of raspberries with a cupful of sugar and let them stand together an hour. Strain the raspberry juice and pulp free from seeds through a wire strainer. Pour half a cupful of boiling water on the gelatin and strain that on the juice. Put the liquid in a porcelain basin and stand it in a pan of water with ice in it. Beat the liquid and when it is as thick as custard stir in the whipped cream. Pour the whole into a two quart mold and put it in the icebox to harden. Serve with whipped cream.

Pineapple Sponge.

Soak one-half package of gelatin in one-half cupful of cold water, dissolve over steam, add one cupful of grated pineapple and the juice of half a small lemon and sweeten to taste. Stir over cracked ice until the mixture begins to thicken, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of six eggs, turn into a wet ring mold and place on ice until firm. Unmold and serve with the center filled with whipped cream, slightly sweetened and flavored with a few drops of vanilla.

Steak With Bananas.

Broil a sirloin steak, place on a hot platter, spread both sides with a tablespoonful of melted butter mixed with one teaspoonful of salt and one-fourth as much white pepper. Over this sprinkle one tablespoonful of grated horseradish. Pare three bananas, split lengthwise, fry brown in butter and lay over the hot steak.

VISIT HISTORIC CITY OF MOSCOW

TOURISTS HAVE GRAVE TROUBLES IN MAKING THEIR WANTS KNOWN.

People Who Speak English Are Few—Had Long Search for the Post-office—City Has Sixteen Hundred Churches, Chapels and Convents.

Moscow, Russia, July 2.

Dear Journal: We arrived in this great and historic city this morning on time to a minute. Yesterday we were two hours behind and the way those engineers made things hum was a caution. I suppose the government has an eye on them and that means something in this autocratic land. This morning we are still late, but the grades were easy and it seemed to me we went more down grade than up and we whirled along at a furious rate and I almost feared we would leave the track, for in spite of the fact that the emperor is said to have drawn a line with his ruler across the map and ordered the engineers to follow it, there are a great many almost unaccountable curves in the track and the train must be slowed down somewhat in rounding them.

We had a rather amusing incident at the station and it went to show that all men are frail. There was a heavy of hotel runners, each one claiming his was the best and only one in the city. One claimed the best English was spoken at his place and another insisted his hotel was the most fashionable; a third said his house had the best rooms, and so it went. We had been recommended to a certain hotel and told the others so, but they said no English was spoken there and when the runner of the hotel showed up he was unable to say a word to us in our language, so we gave him the go-by and had just about settled on another when a man who spoke very good English stepped up to me and warned us against the whole lot, saying if we went with any one of them their promises to rates would not be made good. He knew of a hotel which would accommodate us at two and a half rubles a day for room and if anything more was charged he would pay it out of his own pocket. He was a professional guide and knew what he was talking about.

He agreed to go along with us and to the dismay of the disappointed crowd of runners we boarded the fine automobile bus and were whirled rapidly to the hotel, which is indeed a fine one and well located. We entered and made known our wants and the urbane clerk was at once on hand.

"Now really, very sorry, but the two and a half rubles are all taken; perhaps some will be vacant in the morning and meanwhile we have some very good ones at four rubles."

I wrathfully turned on our self appointed guide and asked him to make his promise good. He said indeed he was sorry, but those rooms had been taken while he was gone to the station, but they would soon be vacant and really we should accept the situation. He showed us the rooms, which indeed are excellent and we decided to accept them, for they are reasonable, all things considered. Mr. Ewert and I are near the others and can be neighborly and so all is well and we are ready to see the sights. We thought we wouldn't use the guide today, but would start out and see something on our own account. Mrs. Ewert had requested her sister to send mail here and we thought we would find the postoffice and see if any had come. Moscow is about like the old part of Boston in regard to streets, but the hotel clerk gave us directions and put down the name of the street on which the postoffice is located, so we thought we could find it. We had gone but a little way, however, when we had to return to the hotel for more explicit directions and again we set out.

We thought we had struck the place and entered, only to find some gentlemen busily occupied at what seemed like insurance business and all our efforts to make them understand what we wanted were unavailing. Again we set out and not finding the object of our search showed our directions to a man who motioned us across the street through an arcade which led to a horse lot or something like it. Again we tried and this time a man directed us to retrace a good part of the way we had come, but to no avail. We saw a rather intelligent looking young clerk in a store and asked him if he spoke English, but he shook his head, so Mrs. Ewert thought she could recall a bit of her French learned when at school, but in answer to the question:

"Parlezvous Francais?" He again nodded no. Then I tried my hand:

"Sprechen Sie Deutsch?"

But again a negative nod was the answer. Then we showed him a postage stamp and indicated we wanted to get some more, but that failed. Then I drew from my pocket a letter and showed him that, indicating that we wanted to send off something like it and all at once his face brightened up as if to say he fully understood what we wanted, and beckoned us to follow him, which we did for quite a distance, till he pulled up in front of a mail box in triumph and we in despair.

We accepted a policeman and he made some frantic motions, showing what he meant and we followed his directions, but still no postoffice and we were in doubt if they had one, but finally a man told us to go in a certain direction; that is, he indicated it by signs, and we followed and finally reached the place, which we found much unlike the similar institutions in our own land, in that the interior was a vast area, handsome-ly fitted up, but pretty much clerks visible with little indications of mail. It took us almost as long to find the right place at which to inquire as it took to find the building, but Mrs. Ewert was rewarded by the receipt of three letters from home.

The drosky or cab drivers of this place have a queer custom. A drosky is a one seated affair, easy reclining seat, with drop top and will comfortably hold three people. The driver is perched in front on a seat by himself right behind the tail of the horse. The shafts are rather heavy, cumbersome affairs and have over the hames of the harness and fastened right at their ends a big half circle made of wood, generally heavy and clumsy. The traces or riggs are fastened to the hames at one end and at the other go back to the outside ends of the spindle of the feno axle; no single tree at all to even the pulling. Some of these vehicles are quite costly, but most of them are rather common and are for hire. The drivers wear low stove pipe hats with broad brims and blue coats, long, reaching almost to the knees, but the most ridiculous thing is the padding to which they resort. Many of them look as if they had two or three pillows stuffed under their clothes to make their girth as large as possible and the more stylish the rig and driver the larger the padding.

The priests are a feature of the place and there are many of them. They wear robes or coats reaching to the ground, long, bushy hair, generally yellow, and do not shave. A priest may marry, but only once and if his wife dies he is condemned to celibacy the rest of his life. It is said the Russians are not very kind to their wives, often whipping and abusing them in many ways, but a priest must not be so, for his first wife is his last.

In 1253 Duke Dolgorouky came down the river that flows through this place and being rather pleased with the location decided he would have a town or city here and began operations. Things didn't move as fast in those days as at present and it took some time to get things going, but in time he succeeded and called his new place Mosques, as nearly as our orthography will pronounce it. Our guide says it is the most interesting city in the world, as it has not been free from wars and tumult for more than a hundred years. It contains enormous wealth, millions being no curiosity. It has 1,600 churches, convents and chapels and which ever way one turns he sees something of interest. Our guide says he served Father Endeavor Clark four weeks when that gentleman was here and says too that the little society yihen planted doesn't flourish very well, as the government isn't very favorable to such things. One this is certain; whichever way one turns he is confronted by something interesting, a church, a monument, a statue, a park, a fine building on every hand. Money has not been spared in the structures and one thinks of the poor from whom it has been wrung.

Not far from our hotel is theatrical square and in front of the pediment of the grand opera house is a bronze four horse chariot group taken in 1814 from the French by Alexis I. Next we came to the Iberian gate, which is the entrance to Moscow proper. In front of this is a little chapel not more than 30 feet square and containing an image of the Virgin costing two million dollars and in the morning there is a perfect throng of people in and out, paying their devotion before the image. We pass through the gate and enter a large space called the Red Square and truly it has run red with the blood of many helpless victims. During the frightful reign of Ivan the Terrible he had executed between 1531-84 no less than 1,698 persons. Here it was, too, that Peter the Great took the lives of 10,000 rebellious subjects and stood by and saw one after another give up his life on the scaffolds erected. His sister, Sophis, was implicated in the rebellion and he had her shut up in a convent and before her window executed several of the leaders of the rebellion. Here, too, or near here the famous Duke Dolgorouky killed a lone hermit who he thought didn't bow low enough before him.

The inner part of the city of city within the city is called Kremlin. The first wall was made of wood, but in 1333 it was replaced with stone. The place was divided into two parts, one for business and the other for homes and contained the residences of the nobility. On one side is a beautiful and unique church, erected by order of Ivan the Terrible in 1561, to commemorate his victory over the Tartars and an Italian architect designed it. It is indeed fine and for that day must have been unequalled. When the building was completed the cruel tyrant asked the architect if he could design another building its equal and not suspecting anything wrong the architect replied he thought he could, whereupon Ivan ordered the hapless man's eyes put out.

This long, unpretentious building is an arsenal and arranged all around it are 874 cannon taken from the French in 1814. They are, of course, antiquated pieces, but are a great source of pride to the present owners. The fine white building was erected by Catherine the Great as a senate chamber, but now it is used as a court of high justice. Out of this building the stern and hard hearted Duke Sergius emerged in 1904 after signing the death warrant for over seventy political criminals and before he had gone far his life was taken by the bomb of an assassin in and a cross marks the spot. That large yellow buildings is used for barracks since the imperial building on the same spot was burned in 1812. Here is a small space set apart by the fanciful painted fence for the imperial guard to occupy when royalty is present.

Holy Trinity Gate is one of five similar structures adn through it many canno used against the Tartars in 1612. There is an absurdity in the way of artillery being the work by order of Boris Glonduroff in 1600. It is a cannon with a bore of 36 inches and about 20 feet long and mounted on a fancy carriage. In front of it are three balls and it is well high needless to say it has never been fired, for the excellent reason that the carriage would be a mere card board toy should it ever be done and the thing itself wouldn't stand powder enough to send a missile from its muzzle.

And here is the famous Moscow bell, of which all who have read anything of this place have had the description, but it is difficult to convey and adequate idea of the enormous affair. In 1600 a Moscow firm cast a bell weighing 800 tons and mounted it in a tower 302 feet high. The tower burned and the bell fell and in 1733 Anne of Holstein ordered a bell weighing 840 tons cast and brought to the tower to be placed in it, but while it was on the scaffold the tower burned and fearing the bell would be injured by the heat the people threw a lot of water on it, causing a huge piece to crack out and it sank partly in the ground. It has since been raised and put on a platform. It is said really to weigh 1,100 tons, is 34 feet high, 60 in diameter and two hundred people can stand inside of it. The clapper, which lies on the ground inside weighs eight and a half tons and the piece cracked out by the water left a hole large enough for a person to walk through and is over a foot thick.

Near by is the Cathedral of the Assumption, which was built in 1333 for coronation purposes and is one the richest on earth. In 1610 Russia was without a ruler or royal family and several nations desired to furnish one, Poland among the rest, but Patriarch Ermogen was zealous-ly opposed to having any foreign nation supply a ruler or dynasty and the Poles captured him, imprisoned and starved him to death and later his bones were interred in this cathedral and he was canonized and the place has become one of the most popular places for worship in the city. At present a great many excursions are run to the city and as we passed by hundreds of people were standing in line waiting their turn to get into the sacred place to bow before the altar and offer their devotions and the rear end ones must have waited till almost night to get in.

The Cathedral of the Annunciation was built in 1242 and was where the children of the imperial family were baptized in early days. It was plundered by the French in 1812 and the bullet holes are still shown. The stone floor was a gift of the shah of Persia and is unique and very handsome. It is yashman and agate. There are tablets of silver and in the wall are rich doors through which only the priests and royal personages can enter. There, too, is a seat for the czar only, but Ivan the Terrible was not able to

Here is the reason: Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It doesn't rub off or wash off. Its shine lasts four times longer than the shine of any other polish. You only need to polish once a month or so, yet your stove will be cleaner, brighter and better looking than it has been since you first bought it. Use on your parlor stove, kitchen stove or gas stove. Get a can from your hardware or stove dealer. LIQUID OR PASTE ONE QUALITY

Be sure to get the genuine. Black Silk Stove Polish costs you no more than the ordinary kind. Keep your grates, registers, fenders and stove pipes bright and free from rusting by using BLACK SILK AIR-DRYING ENAMEL. Brush free with each can of enamel only. MISS CATHERINE STINSON,
Dashing Southern Girl, Who Will Make Daring Flights Every Day in Bi-plane at Illinois State Fair.

FAMOUS AVIATORS AT STATE FAIR

Will Fly Every Day From Oct. 3 to 11 Inclusive.

PARACHUTE DROP FROM AREO

Roy Francis and Catherine Stinson,
Curtis-Wright Flyers, Will Make
Sensational Flights—Daring
Stunts Feature Program.

The attraction committee of the state board of agriculture have contracted with the Curtis-Wright aviators to do the flying at the Illinois State Fair this year. They are certain to be great entertainers as the Curtis-Wright people have the reputation of giving nothing but high class flights, and they have this year a number of wonderful, daring stunts, chief among them is the 1,000 foot drop made by Miss Catherine Stinson. She will go up with Roy Francis, and then drop when the height of 1,000 feet is reached, will cut herself loose and float lightly to the ground. While Francis will circle down and around the parachute as it descends.

Miss Stinson, in addition to her parachute work, will also do some flying. She will make daily flights of 20 minutes' duration from Oct. 6th to 10th. In addition to the daily flights at the fair grounds by Miss Stinson and Roy Francis, the aviators will make daily cross country flights of 25 miles.

Upon Saturday, Oct. 11th, Automobile Day, there will be staged a spectacular race against an automobile and aeroplane. Great rivalry exists between the two speed devices, as to which can create the most speed.

Will it be the one on terra firma or the one in the air?

Come to the Illinois State Fair, truly the greatest fair on earth. Come the first day, Oct. 3d, and don't think of going home until you have seen it all. And you can't see it all until late Saturday afternoon, Oct. 11th, as the curtain at this great exposition will not drop until sundown the last day.—Adv.

withstand the rules of the church. It was well understood that he poisoned six wives and the seventh died, but when he married the eighth contrary to the rules of the church that was too much and he was not permitted to use the seat for the czars, so he had one erected for his special use. There is a massive icon of the Holy Trinity made of silver and covered with gold; a great candlestick of silver and many other gorgeous articles.

The church of Michael the Archangel is certainly one of the grandest buildings in the city; or rather, I should say it is among the most lavishly furnished. It is a mausoleum for the emperors until Peter the Great, who wanted to be buried in St. Petersburg, where all since his time have been laid away. The bodies are placed in caskets in the ground and above them are horizontal copper tombs about four feet high and as wide as the grave and as long. On them are the particulars relating to the royal occupant beneath. Here lies the body of Ivan the Terrible, his son, whom he killed in a fit of passion, nine year old son, who was killed that no member of the family might reign, other relatives are buried there and kings all about. There is the tomb of Grand Duke Michael, who was killed by the Tartars. He was a general of great ability. Near him is the tomb of a peasant who was his faithful body guard. The last emperor before the accession of the Romanoffs lies here with his wife by his side, but she is the only woman buried here.

While we were there a number of children were receiving their first sacrament and the sight as well as the intoning of the priests was impressive. The interior of the building is a mass of gold and glitter, rich paintings and adornments until the eye is almost weary of looking at so much wealth. An old brick structure is the salutation tower from which 101 guns are fired on state occasions.

The monument of Alexander II, who was assassinated, is one of the grandest of the kind in the city. The figure is heroic size, standing arrayed in robes of state, surrounded by four great stone pillars. About it is a polished stone pavement and on the outside a peristyle with an arcade between and on the ceiling in mosaic are portraits of all the emperors of Russia since 880. It is one of the grandest affairs of the kind in the world. The figure is of bronze and is a triumph of that art. It was this ruler who signed the emancipation act and while possibly the serfs are somewhat better off than before, there are many who doubt it.

That beautiful gilt dome belongs to the Convent of the Capital and was built by the Grand Duchess Theodora in 1860 and is the mausoleum of the wives of the czars, except the one mentioned, who was laid by the side of her husband. The Redeemer's gate was erected to commemorate the persons who were executed by Ivan the Terrible and Peter the Great at the time of the rebellion. All men passing through it are required to remove their hats, drivers of vehicles and all others. A little way off in an open square, mentioned as the place of much execution, is a stone circle raised several feet from the ground and is the place where the scaffold was erected from which so many went into eternity. The arcade erected by the chamber of commerce is the largest of the kind in the world. It is 800 feet square, roofed with glass and houses over 2,000 merchants of all kinds. It is indeed a busy hive of industry and is noted for its fine goods.

Situated five miles from the center of the city is the palace of Peter the Great. It was built in 1680 by Alexis, father of Peter the Great, and while it was gorgeous in its day, and is plain and commonplace now. It is of brick and is seldom used. For some time it was occupied as a summer residence by some of the czars, but that has been given up and now the only time it is used is when a man comes to Moscow to be crowned czar. He alights from the railroad at the palace and remains there all night and makes a formal entry into the city next day. There are some fifty rooms, large and small, in it and only a brief description is attempted, though we were pretty well through it. Old and valued servants, men who have earned and secured an easy position, are in charge and surely they earn their money easily. Among the rooms may be seen the bath room, which, like most of the others, is finished in mahogany and supplied with a zinc lined bath tub, which looks rather common for a czar. Here is a chair with two handles on the side and looking like a regular sedan on a small scale and we learn that on it the youthful Peter was carried when an infant.

Here is his workroom, in which he studied and wrote and near by is the room in which is the bed on which he was born. On the walls are several historical paintings, which are highly valuable. This apartment is a reception room and is large and commodious and in it is some remarkable needle work by the empress dowager. Here is the bedroom of the great man and the beautiful bedstead used by him and by all subsequent emperors who have remained here overnight. Here is a bathroom with marble tub that was prepared for the dowager empress, who used it but one day and night.

All through the building is a peculiar and priceless marble, found only in the Ural mountains and is of a blue color and occasionally one of another hue. Here is a little den of a place which Peter, when a boy of twelve, used as a place in which to discipline the officers of two regiments he had organized. In each one of the nearly fifty rooms is a clock, which is in good running order and wound as occasion requires by the attendants and in one room is a time piece which has not a circular dial, but a quarter of a circle and when the hands complete it they fly back to the start. Another clock needs to be wound but once a year. There are many other time pieces curious and rare.

A suite of rooms especially prepared for the present czar when he came to this city to be crowned shows he was rather democratic in his tastes. Here is a kitchen with big heating or warming ovens, to which the food from the royal kitchen was brought ready to be placed on the table. Here on the front and outside is a balcony overlooking an immense open space used for a drill ground and on which a lot of cavalry men were drilling when we were there and where Napoleon stood and watched his army retreat from Moscow. Here is a large central hall and a family dining room. Two furniture suites of birch are very unique and rare as the wood seldom grows large enough to be used as lumber. Here is the room occupied by Napoleon three nights while his troops were here and the sofa on which he slept and which cumbersome thing he brought with him, but was glad to leave along with a fine stone top table.

One of the most interesting exhibits of this interesting place is a set of furniture said absolutely to have been wholly made by Peter the Great, who used to enjoy his spare time in such work. The collection comprises a set of common chairs, a sofa, elaborately carved, a cabinet, a table with fine carving and one or two other pieces. We sat on the sofa and in the chairs and felt quite honored. The rooms used to be heated by the great porcelain stoves common to the country then and now in the rural districts and much in the city. They are huge affairs, built in a corner of the room and three or four feet square on the outside. A big fire is kindled in them and when the wood is pretty well burned the draft is shut off by something placed over the fire and two apertures connecting the interior of the stove with the top are opened and the thing stays hot a long time and heats all. Much more could be written regarding this historic place and the grounds that surround it, but this is enough.

One of the most gorgeous structures is the Cathedral of Our Savior, built by Nicholas I in honor of his victory over the French in 1812.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistence, which finally secured for him a good position.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

STOCK QUOTATIONS DECLINE ABRUPTLY

ACTIVE TRADING IS CONTINUED TO THE FIRST HOUR.

After Decline the Market Shows no
Re recuperative Power and During Remainder of the Session is Dull
With Prices Ruling Not Far From the Lowest.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Sept. 29.—Active movements of stocks today were confined to the first hour when prices declined abruptly. Opening trading was slow, with a slight drift downward, except in the cases of Reading and Union Pacific, both of which advanced fractionally.
Union Pacific at 162 1/2 reached a new high mark for the present movement, which was within half of the year's best figure.
On heavy offerings of the favorite stocks the market was roused quickly from its inertia and fell rapidly.
Canadian Pacific dropped back more than two points from its high figure.
Canadian Pacific lost nearly 3 points, other representative issues lost 1 to
2. Despite the feeble resistance offered the market was not long under severe pressure. Sentiment diminished but the only effect was to impart a steadier tone. The market showed no recuperative power and during the remainder of the day was dull and flat, with prices ruling not far from the lowest. Missouri Pacific moved against the market. Buying of this stock was prompted by the excellent showing in the road's annual report, which revealed a surplus of $1,562,000 for the year as compared with a deficit of over $2,000,000 in the preceding period.

GERMANS WILL STUDY AMERICAN PRISON CONDITIONS

Four Officials Now Enroute to This Country Will Visit Joliet Penitentiary as Well as Other Institutions.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Among the passengers on board the steamer Victoria Louise, which sailed from Hamburg today bound for New York, are four German officials appointed by the German government to study American prisons. The four commissioners of the German government are Privy Councilors Plasmich of Berlin and Schlosser of Wabern; Superintendent of Prisons Heikman of Merl and Reformatory Superintendent Remppich of Wabern. They are expected to arrive in New York about October 9 and will make a 2,000 mile tour under the direction of Orlando F. Lewis, the general secretary of the Prison Association of New York, who was asked by the German government to arrange the itinerary.

According to the plans arranged by Mr. Lewis the German commissioners will visit New Bedford reformatory for women under his guidance on the day after their arrival in New York. On October 11 they will inspect the New Jersey state reformatory at Rahway, N. J., and on the following day, October 12, they are to leave New York for Indianapolis, where they will attend the American Prison congress.

Unless some changes are made in the program the German commissioners will see Sing Sing on October 27 and Great Meadow. After visiting New England prisons, Boston and New York, where they will see President Wilson, it is expected they will return to New York to sail hence for Germany on November 7. The prisons which the German officials are likely to consider important as representing types, are Sing Sing, Auburn and Great Meadow in the state of New York; the Indiana state prison at Joliet, and the Massachusetts state prison at Charlestown, Mass. In studying the American reformatories they will probably spend two days at Elmira, N. Y., and will note particularly the reformatories at Mansfield, Ohio, Concord, Mass., and Rahway, N. J.

In recent years Germany has developed several excellent reform schools for boys and girls largely upon American models and, the German opinion of the George Junior Republic, Industry and Hudson and Bedford reformatories in New York will therefore be interesting. Other reform schools that will be visited are the St. Charles school for boys and the schools at Shirley, Lancaster and Westboro, in Massachusetts.

C. motor with controller and starting resistor; capable of pumping one million gallons every 24 hours.

Bids must be on basis F. O. B. Jacksonville. The city council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Specifications on file in this office.

C. R. Knollenberg,
Commissioner of Accounts and Finances.

GET RID OF THE TORMENT OF RHEUMATISM.

That you can do by ridding yourself of the cause. Weak, sluggish, inactive kidneys allow the uric acid crystals to circulate in the blood, and these lodging in the joints and muscles, cause rheumatism, lumbago and stiff swollen aching joints. Foley Kidney Pills ease your pain and torment from them the time you begin taking them. They positively and permanently build up the kidneys, restore their normal action, and strain out the uric acid crystals that cause the rheumatism and lumbago. Try them. City Drug Co., J. A. Obermeyer. (Adv.)

ALABAMA STATE EXPOSITION.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 29.—The annual state exposition opened here today with a large and interesting display and a large attendance. Among the numerous educational features of the exposition are the exhibits arranged by the Southern Railway, the Mobile & Ohio, Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific, the Alabama Great Southern and several other southern railroads. These exhibits are made with a view of bettering farming conditions in the south and daily demonstrations will be given of the most scientific methods of doing the work required on a modern farm.

MOTHERS! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Bilious, Stomach Sour, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat, or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!—Adv.

HIS FOOLHARDY FEAT.

A Nerve Trying Climb Up the Face of a Steep Precipice.

In his book, "Trailing and Camping in Alaska," A. M. Powell, a government surveyor, tells how one of his party was led into a most hazardous predicament. He says:

"We landed on a grassy bank at the foot of a precipitous mountain spur. After supper one of the trio tried to climb to a ledge of white spar that could be plainly seen from the camp. After an hour's hard work he reached the ledge, but it proved disappointing. He then saw that he could not descend without eyes in his toes. If he could ascend a few hundred feet he might lower himself down a draw by the help of scattering alder brush. He spent another hour in getting to that place only to discover a precipice in the path he had expected to descend.

There was another chance left; he might climb to the top of the spur far above. No living man could have clung to the face of that precipice a minute if it had not been for the moss that was rooted in the small crevices.

He continued climbing until about 10 o'clock, when he paused to look down on the campfire and the water, more than a thousand feet below him. He felt a sickness come over him, so he turned his gaze to the rock wall, a foot from his face.

When near the summit he found himself face to face with a perpendicular wall about twelve feet high. There appeared to be a small bench on top of this wall, on which he might rest if he could reach it. He sat for a few moments on a large rock that lay at the foot of the wall; then with his knife he cut niches for finger and toe holds. Holding on by these he climbed up and dug a sort of trench through the moss on the rim above, through which he might draw his body. Then he descended to the rock for a long rest before making the final effort.

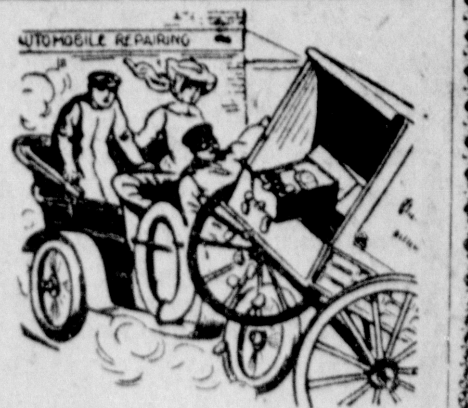

He finally nerved himself to the task, put his fingers in the niches and drew himself from the rock which, with the pressure of the departing foot, said goodbye and went bumping down, down, down. The man was left clinging to his niches—hope and life above, sure death below.

Big drops of sweat stood on his forehead as he steadily worked up, up, and held with one hand while he dug the other into the moss above. Half of his body finally rested on the edge while the other half hung in space without a foothold. It seemed impossible to move from that position until he saw an alder stem, an inch in diameter, that had grown on the little flat bench. He tried its strength. It enabled him to pull himself up and lie on the narrow bed of moss, where he thought of friends far away and his own folly.

There was but one way out and that was along a six inch shelf about 100 feet to the westward that ended on the sloping ridge. Along this a man could edge his body by holding on to the jagged places in the rock wall. He took off his shoes and set off along that sloping path, but he had to be careful not to look down from his dizzy height to the distant campfire.

The feat was accomplished safely and a thankful mortal lay on the green, grassy ridge in complete collapse. His aneroid barometer recorded 2,140 feet above the sea, and his watch told him that it was halfpast 12 in the morning.

The English Breakfast.
England has known many changes during recent years. Caste lines have been obliterated, the silk hat is no longer an object of reverential worship, actors have been knighted and bands introduced into restaurants. But the breakfast table is the last ditch of British conservatism. The Englishman eats bacon and eggs 365 mornings in the year and welcomes leap year because it enables him to indulge in that delightful dish 366 times. The monarchy may be abolished and the house of lords deprived of its prerogative, but the English breakfast will remain as it was in the days of the conqueror.—New York Herald.

IF A WAGON GETS IN THE WAY of your auto, don't think the car is ruined because it is considerably smashed up. Send it here and have us repair it. It has to be a pretty bad wreck to be beyond our skill. When you get it back it will be as good as new and probably better. Next time it will be the wagon that will need repairing; not your auto.

SARDOU AT REHEARSALS.

He Worried the Actors to Scowls and the Actresses to Tears.

Sardou, the great French playwright, knew how to profit by the views of other people. Jerome A. Hart writes in his book, "Sardou and the Sardou Plays":

"Like Alexandre Dumas pere, Sardou was extremely sensitive to the opinions of the less subtle spectators of his rehearsals. He closely watched and heeded the impressions and comments of the stage carpenters, scene painters, firemen, superns and other humble people behind the scenes. They represented to him the average mind of the average audience. To the opinions of actors of his unproduced pieces he paid little heed; to the opinions of critics, none at all. At rehearsals no details escaped him. He would seat himself on the stage chairs and sofas, open and shut the practicable doors, go to the back of the parterre to study the perspective of the scene, climb to the highest gallery to see if the audience there could hear, and then hasten back to the stage.

"There he would seat himself, jumping up during the rehearsal thirty or forty times to show the actors his idea of the action. In doing this he would laugh, would cry, would shriek and would even die a minute death. Coming to life again, he would call for his overcoat and hasten to muffle himself up as before. He was very sensitive to cold and always came on the stage with a heavy coat, a muffler and cap to protect him from drafts.

"He would rehearse from 10 in the morning until 3, when he would take a sandwich and a glass of wine. After this he would resume his work until 5, at which hour he would go blithely forth into the street, smiling and humming 'faded' as one resentful player put it, the scowling actors and weeping actresses.

A WAY OUT

A Resident of Jacksonville Shows the Way.

There's one effective way to relieve kidney backache.

Liniment and plasters may relieve it.

But they seldom reach the cause.

Backache is cause to suspect the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for disordered kidneys.

Jacksonville people back them up.

Read a case of it:

J. B. Seaver, blacksmith, 346 E. North street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with fine results and I am pleased to recommend them. I had pains in the small of my back, especially when I tried to stoop, after stooping, I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped the pains. They also regulated the action of my kidneys."

If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Seaver had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)

REPUBLICAN POSTMASTERS MUST VACATE.

Such Is the Word Senator Sherman Is Alleged to Have Brought From Washington.

Springfield Journal: That there is to be a general election of Republican postmasters of the fourth class in Illinois, as soon as Postmaster General Burleson's inspectors can visit the various districts and prefer the necessary charges, is said to be the word which Senator Sherman brings to Illinois. Senator Sherman is said to have admitted that he was powerless to check the general plan of replacing Republicans with Democrats.

Sullivan's Men to Win.
It is further stated from sources coming to Springfield that a majority of the new men will be taken from the list of those approved by Roger C. Sullivan, and not necessarily by Senator James Hamilton Lewis. The Sullivan lieutenants are said to have submitted to the postmaster general complete slates for all districts. In many instances without the approval of the Democratic congressmen from the respective districts.

According to reports, the Sullivan recommendations are expected to be backed up by the postmaster general, as it is his announced intention of doing in the recommendations made by the Taggart organization in Indiana and that of Murphy in New York, and in addition to this there is reported the same disposition on the part of Attorney General McReynolds, who is the last word in the choosing of district attorneys and federal marshals.

GREAT RAYMOND BEGINS ENGAGEMENT AT THE GRAND

Famous Master of Magic Pleased
Large Audience Monday Night—
Great Program Interspersed With Pictures.

Manager Hunt, following his custom, is offering a big program at the Grand this week, the attraction being none other than the Great Raymond, that prince of the world of mystery. Last night the audience witnessed the splendid program which Raymond and his company give and saw moving pictures also, all for the one admission, the entire performance lasting for nearly three hours.

Since Raymond's successful visit here a few months ago he has added new features and accessories to his performance and the former splendor of presentation has been greatly enhanced. There is something intensely interesting about Raymond's performances. They appeal to the eye and to the mind as well and while the auditor is struggling mentally to understand how something can be done before his very eyes, there comes reaction and laughter from some clever turn of the magician's art. It's certainly a great show that the Great Raymond stages.

WILL BE GREAT GAME.
One of the interesting football games this season will be that between Illinois College and Millikin University played on the college campus Nov. 8. In this game four high school players of Springfield will appear, Frisbee and Wilson wearing the Illinois colors and Catlin and Acker the Millikin togs. Acker is one of the big stars which the Springfield school has produced and has been winning great honors as a member of the Y. M. C. A. team of Springfield. Catlin is also a fast man. The record of Frisbee, as an athlete is the par of Acker and Wilson is a football man of speed and head. Reuben Cohn, a sophomore at Illinois college states that on the day the two teams meet here that a big crowd of Springfield boys are coming over to witness the struggle of the former S. H. S. men for gridiron honors.

FERNS MISSING FROM PARK.
For some time past ferns have been taken from urns on pedestals at Nichols park and recently 27 were taken at one time. Park Policeman Kennedy believed he had evidence that Henry Kirby had taken ferns and the park board had a warrant issued for his arrest. The case is to be heard in Squire Coons court this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mr. Kirby says that there is absolutely no truth in the charge, that he had no desire for the ferns, no use whatever for them and that he will have no trouble at all in proving his innocence.

THE OPERA HOUSE SALE.

Announcement was made in Sunday's Journal of the sale of the Grand Opera house to a Missouri land owner who traded $69 acres of land in Bates county, Mo., for the property. The name of the purchaser is Michael Dore of Kansas City, and he is to take possession of the property next March when it is said that extensive improvements in the building will be made. Manager Hunt expects to manage the theatre and hotel until March 1, and in all probability after that date.

ARE NOT MARRIED.

The item appearing in Sunday morning's Journal to the effect that Earl Franz and Miss Julia Souza were married at Beardstown, which was contributed, was incorrect.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Miss Irene McAvoy entertained at a china rush at her home on East North street Monday evening in honor of Miss Bess Alleen Milburn, who is soon to marry Mr. Leo Johnson. The guest list included only a few of the more intimate friends of Miss Milburn. Games and music served to make the hours pass pleasantly and the occasion on the whole was most enjoyable. After the games and music had furnished entertainment for a season, a delicious three course luncheon was served.

A most clever announcement party was given Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 by Miss Frances Eck in honor of her niece, Miss Gertrude Eck, who in the near future will become the bride of Mr. Knottel of the government mail service at Lincoln. The thirty of Miss Eck's friends present included from a distance Mrs. Leo Euteneuer and Miss Blanche Euteneuer of Havana, and Mrs. F. J. Kaiser and Miss Margaret Colwell of Alexander. The favors were blue and white wedding bells and roses tied with ribbons and miniature traveling bags filled with rice. Contrary to the expectations of the guests, the cards bearing the announcement were not in the traveling bags, but on a card around the neck of a black cat, which was brought in and let out of a white bag, much to the delight of the expectant guests. The refreshments served were of the highest order and a genuine good time was surely enjoyed by all.

Theta Sigma literary society of the Woman's college entertained for the girls Monday evening at the college. One of the rooms had been converted into a large ocean steamer and all the students were taken a trip around the world, the various countries were visited and at each place inhabitants dressed in the costumes of the place appeared in tableau. The ship was also supplied with wireless telegraph and an orchestra furnished music on the delightful trip. During the evening all repaired to the saloon of the ship where a small banquet was served.

Miss Irene Merrill entertained an ante-nuptial party Monday afternoon for Miss Leila Smith. Five hundred was the game played and first prize was won by Miss Lura Wiswell and second prize by Miss Jeanette Taylor, the guest prize going to Miss Smith. Dainty refreshments were served and the occasion was one of great enjoyment.

Mrs. C. H. Rammelkamp opened her home to the members of the Y. W. C. A. of Illinois college Monday afternoon, when the new girls were guests of honor. Short addresses were made by the president of the organization, Miss Edith Envall and by Mrs. Rammelkamp. Wives of faculty members and lady teachers of the college were present and the hours from 2:30 till 6 o'clock were spent in a very happy manner.

In honor of the 16th birthday of Chester Watred of Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Watred, a company of thirty young people walked unexpectedly into his home Monday evening and treated the young man to a most enjoyable surprise. The rest of the family knew of the coming surprise but kept the secret so well that he knew nothing of the plans until his friends walked in upon him. Scott Davenport and Lloyd Hohman, both of Alexander, assisted in the entertaining. Refreshments were served and the games and contests provided, made the hours fly by with unlooked for speed.

A watch given free with each boy's suit at Garland & Co.

CLASS EXPRESSES.

APPRECIATION.
A beautiful gold ring was presented Sunday to Miss Maude Neil Smith by the young ladies of the Berean Sunday school class of the First Baptist church, of which she has long been the teacher, as a token of their high regard for her as a teacher and friend. Sunday closed Miss Neil Smith's work with the class, for the time at least, as she has gone to Chicago to take a position in the library of the University of Chicago. She carries with her, not only the loving respect of the young ladies of her Sunday school class, but the esteem and best wishes of a host of friends in the First Baptist church and in Jacksonville.

"Years of Experience Have Proven to Me That the MAJESTIC Range IS the Best"

"Strange, that for years, I couldn't see that trying to get good work from an old, worn-out range, merely to save the price of a new one, was not true economy. My Great Majestic has more than earned its cost in the saving of fuel alone, because the open seams and joints in my old, worn-out range where the bolts were loose and the putty had crumbled away, made me burn twice as much fuel as necessary.

"Talk about luck in baking—"luck" is nothing but good oven, and my Majestic oven is simply perfect. I can depend on it absolutely every day. I believe father and the children are happier and I know we have better meals at less expense with our Majestic.

FUNERALS

Rowe.
Funeral services in memory of W. H. Rowe were held Monday afternoon at his late home two miles northwest of Jacksonville. The company of friends gathered to pay tribute to his memory was unusually large for the task. The services were in charge of Rev. W. S. Phillips who was assisted by Rev. W. H. McGhee of Nokomis, Dr. F. A. McCarty and Rev. W. A. Boyd. Music was supplied by Mr. Edgar Martin, Mrs. Jas. Martin, J. Philip Read and Edward Williamson.

Passages from the scriptures were read by Dr. McCarty and a prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Boyd. As the task for his remarks Rev. Mr. Phillips took the text 2 Corinthians 4:16 "Though our outward man perish yet inward man is renewed day by day." The minister spoke particularly of the faith element and the power of faith in the life of man and he referred to immortality as being that which faith apprehendeth. "Men have sought by wisdom to find God but their struggles have proved to them that He is often most revealed to the simple hearted." Sir Oliver Lodge, the eminent English scientist said recently that science cannot enter in that domain which loves, joys and sorrows, that science does not constitute the whole domain of the universe and that he believed in the continuity of personality. God is revealed not to the wise but to babes and sucklings.

The minister referred to Mr. Rowe as a man of faith. He had known him from boyhood and testified that he was a friend of boys. "Mr. Rowe was fair minded in all things charitable in his views, a careful and painstaking student, original in his mode of thought and expression. His open mindedness was especially marked and he was of such a judicial temperament that he would have made a great lawyer had his work been directed to the law rather than to agriculture. In all things he was a sturdy man strong, yet gentle and tender a man with a thorough Christian spirit."

Rev. Mr. McGhee spoke after Mr. Phillips and of the high regard he had for Mr. Rowe whom he had known for years. He emphasized the strength of Mr. Rowe's character and the influence of such lives as his.

From the house the long cortege to Diamond Grove cemetery where the ministers all took part in the committal services and Mr. Rowe was laid to rest.

The honorary bearers were Edmund Blackburn, Samuel W. Black, C. Riggs Taylor, Frank Spaulding, George W. Moore and James Cruise. The active bearers were Isaac Watson, George Friddle, Walter Patterson, A. A. Dyer, Charles S. Black and Stangfield Baldwin.

Among friends from a distance who attended the funeral were John H. Jackson of Gifford, Ind.; Mrs. C. A. Smith of Sheldon, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nowlin and Dr. J. A. Nowlin of Farmer City; Mrs. B. Applegate of Holdridge, Neb.; B. P. Maxey of Curran and Wm. F. Goff of Pleasant Plains.

SENATOR LODGE'S CONDITION ANNOUNCED AS CRITICAL

Secretary States That He Underwent an Operation For Gastric Ulcer—Has Been Ill For Some Time.

Nahant, Mass., Sept. 29.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge was operated upon last Thursday for a growth upon the right side. For twenty-four hours afterward his condition was serious. Today it was said that the patient was as comfortable as could be expected. Senator Lodge's secretary said tonight that the senator was operated upon for gastric ulcer after his condition had become critical. For some time the senator has suffered from a foreign growth but he was reluctant to submit to surgery and yielded only upon the insistence of his family, his physicians and a few intimate friends who know of his trouble.

One of Senator Lodge's physicians said that the senator's recovery is largely a matter of vitality, in which his 61 years and the fact that he was a very tired man previous to the operation, must be taken into consideration. According to Dr. Frederick Winslow, another of the physicians the senator's condition late tonight was excellent.

Hundreds of telegrams and telephone messages poured into the senator's home tonight when news of his illness became known. Secret had been maintained at the request of the senator himself, it was said and two policemen maintained guard around the estate which is shut by nature from the rest of the town.
